ITU files charges

NEW YORK (AP) — The printers union has filed an unfair labor practices charge against the publishers of The New York Times, The Daily News and The New York Post, accusing them of denying the printers the right to bargain with the newspapers individually.

Bertram A. Powers, president of International Typographical Union No. 6, said he had filed the charge with the National Labor Relations Board, which had earlier ruled that the union could bargain separately.

Powers said he had asked to bargain individually, but was told that each of the papers was represented by a bargaining committee that had the same membership.

A spokesman for The Daily News said that "each publisher has been advised by counsel that its position is a correct and legal one."

Penna lottery hints at hot stuff

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The Pennsylvania lottery is expected to start up a third weekly lottery soon.

A source said the lottery will begin in about a month and "will have something no other lottery in any state has." He declined to give other details until the plan was finalized. Lottery officials refused to confirm or deny the report. Pennsylvania went into the lottery business about a year ago, first with a 50-cent weekly drawing and later adding another weekly drawing with $1 tickets.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, TEXAS—If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss . . . and grow more hair.

For years "they said it couldn't be done". But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment for both men and women that is not only stopping hair loss . . . but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. They invite you to try the treatment and see for yourself!

Naturally they would not offer this opportunity unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped. But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and many other conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair . . . now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.
