

NEW FROM KOREN AND MENORAH BOOKS

KOREN RAV KOOK SIDDUR

Culled from Rav Kook's own commentary to the Siddur, 'Olat Re'iyah, and other writings of the master, as well as rich anecdotes transmitted by Rav Kook's son and major disciples, The Koren Rav Kook Siddur speaks to the soul, while it connects us all to the sacred soil of the Holy Land.

JEWISH LAW AS JOURNEY: FINDING MEANING IN DAILY JEWISH PRACTICE

David Silverstein

A valuable companion to published works of practical halakha. This book explores, in great deal and from a multitude of traditional and modern sources, the virtues and ideals foundational to daily halakhic practice. It offers a systematic exploration of the mitzvot one encounters in a given day and the transformative religious messages that underlie them.

JEWISH LAW AS REBELLION: A Plea For Religious Authenticity and Halachic Courage

By Nathan Lopes Cardozo

Hardcover, 480 pages including index
Urim Publications, 2018
ISBN: 978-965-524-276-8

Rabbi Nathan Lopes Cardozo shows how to make Jewish law relevant, once again, to our modern society and to the State of Israel in Jewish Law As Rebellion, a book that may trigger a new era of genuine introspection, laying the foundations for a better world in which the Divine will stand at the center of humanity.

“Rabbi Nathan Lopes Cardozo has written a challenging, even provocative book, inviting us to restore the iconoclasm with which Judaism was born as a religion of protest against the status quo. Agree or disagree, you will find yourself thinking hard and deep about the current state of Jewish law and life, and that makes it a work well worth reading – a new chapter in one of the great Jewish traditions: the dignity of dissent.”

– Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks

“Rabbi Nathan Lopes Cardozo is a unique intellectual presence in the rabbinical world today. His new book raises profound questions that disturb our complacency and demand the attention of our hearts and minds. To think with him and the challenges he raises is one of the great experiences of modern Jewish thought.”

– Professor Susannah Heschel

“What this exceptional book offers is a rationale for halakhic practice as a discipline of resistance – resistance to the corrupting effect of the ordinary, to the hollowing-out of human behaviour and human awareness that a fast-paced and feverish culture produces. It is full of insights that will challenge and inspire Jews and non-Jews alike: a reminder that Orthodoxy of whatever kind is empty if it does not arise from the deep, radical awareness of the divine imperative to be amazed and thankful in the face of every thing and every experience. Immensely enriching.”

– Dr. Rowan Williams, Master of Magdalene College, former Archbishop of Canterbury

JUDAISM'S ENCOUNTER WITH OTHER CULTURES: REJECTION OR INTEGRATION?

The issue of Judaism's relationship to wisdom derived from non-Jewish sources has been one of the most basic concerns of Jewish intellectual history from antiquity to modern times. In this work, four eminent scholars provide fresh insight into this continuing discussion. In compelling essays, they present multiple angles to the issue, providing a rich sampling of source material and offering an eloquent case for the perpetuation of Judaism's dialogue and cultural interaction with the outside world.

ILLUMINATING JEWISH THOUGHT: EXPLORATIONS OF FREE WILL, THE AFTERLIFE, AND THE MESSIANIC ERA

Netanel Wiederblank

This first of a multi-volume series surveys the theological foundations of Jewish faith. With the approach and scope of a master educator at Yeshiva University, Rabbi Wiederblank brings together a wide array of Jewish texts ranging from philosophical to Kabbalistic and ancient to modern, in a clear and accessible source book.
