

Deaths

Ludwig Riffer, Henrietta Robusto, Carl Roque, Osvaldo...

RAPOPORT—Jacques, April 7. Father of David. Grandfather of Dana and Jonathan...

RITTER—Henrietta. Beloved wife of Frank, loving mother of Patricia, Barbara and Frank, Jr., passed away on April 9th, 1993.

ROBUSTO—Dr. Carl C. On April 7, 1993. Retired Executive Vice President, St. John's University. Beloved husband of the late Dorothea, loving father of Jeanne H. DeLorenzo and Edward J. Robusto...

ROBUSTO—Carl C. Dr. The Board of Trustees, Administration, Faculty and Staff of St. John's University note with profound sorrow the death of Dr. Carl C. Robusto...

ROQUE—Osvaldo. On April 7, 1993. Survived by his father, Juan Porfirio Roque; brother Adael Roque and sister-in-law Rosa Roque...

ROVERE—Matilda G., 84, on April 10th, 1993, in Longmeadow, MA. Born in N.Y.C. November 21, 1908, she was a teacher for over twenty years in the New York School System...

ROWANE—John P.J., of Bethpage, N.Y. On April 10, 1993. Beloved husband of Florence H. (nee Williams). Loving father of Jean Dietz, Jacqueline Palotta, and Patricia Tresnan...

SCHERER—Pearl. Beloved wife of Ben. Devoted mother of Addie and Abe, Dr. Harvey and Happy. Dear sister of Alice Nash...

SCHLENGER—Joan (nee Zimmerman). Of South Orange, N.J., on Friday, April 9, 1993. Beloved wife of Robert D., devoted mother of Jlie Adell and Nancy Schlegler...

Deaths

SCHNEIDER—Franz, of Oyster Bay, New York, on Friday, April 9, in Key Largo, Florida. Former financial editor of The New York Evening Post, The New York Sun, and The Philadelphia Public Ledger...

SCORESE—Lee. A rare and beautiful person, we will remember her always with love.

SIEGEL—Elizabeth Mc Kinnon. Died on April 9, 1993 after a short illness at the age of 84. Born in Grand Forks, N.D. in 1909, she graduated the University of North Dakota in 1931...

SILVER—Lee. After a short illness Lee Silver passed away April 1, 1993 at age 80. She was the beloved wife of the late Harry Silver. Cherished mother of Joan (Terry) Cohen, Richard (Sarita) Silver...

SIMMONS—Irving E., M.D. On April 8, 1993. Beloved husband of Lilyan, dear father of Roni and James and daughter-in-law Jane, cherished grandfather of Matt, Jarrett, and Peri and Stephen, Rebecca and Rachael...

SIMMONS—Irving E., MD. We mourn the loss of Ed, our true friend of 45 years, and extend our heartfelt sympathy to Lilyan, Roni, Jimmy and their families.

SOLAN—Marion E. (nee Rogers) on April 3, 1993. After earning a M.S.W. from Fordham University, Mrs. Solan went on to found and direct the Department of Social Work at South Nassau Communities Hospital until her retirement in 1982...

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Dr. Joseph B. The Jewish Center mourns the passing of a great leader, scholar and teacher. Through the power of his intellect and charisma, he shaped the contours of American Orthodoxy in the twentieth century...

SOLOVEITCHIK—Joseph B. Our loss is overwhelming. There is no one to replace him. His brilliance was awesome. We, his students, will never forget our exposure to this mountain of knowledge...

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. The Jewish Publication Society mourns the passing of our generation's giant of Torah scholarship. We are honored to have been the publisher of "Halakic Man", one of his most enduring works...

Deaths

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. The entire Yeshiva University Family and its affiliated Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary mourn the passing of a towering scholar, philosopher, and teacher who as senior rosh yeshiva at RIETS—Leib Merkin Distinguished Professor of Talmud and Jewish Philosophy—and faculty member at YU's Bernard Revel Graduate School had a profound intellectual impact on Jewish thought in our age...

SOLOVEITCHIK—Joseph. The Jewish National Fund of America records with deep sorrow the passing of a Torah giant and leader of the American Orthodox community, HaRav Yosef Dov Soloveitchik. The Rav inspired countless numbers of Jews with his unique style of Torah study and incisive analysis...

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun and the Ramaz School family mourn the passing of the revered and beloved teacher of three generations of American Jews. His breadth and depth of scholarship in Torah and the disciplines of western civilization, along with deep piety and impeccable honesty and integrity, made him uniquely qualified to teach the Jewish people of today by word and by example...

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. Young Israel of Kew Gardens Hills grieves the tragic passing of the revered teacher of the Jewish people Rav Yosef Dov Soloveitchik who inspired us with the love of Torah whose teachings affected every single member of Klal Yisrael. He will live on within us.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. Congregation Shaaray Tefila in Lawrence mourns the loss of "The Rav", Hagoan S., renowned Torah luminary, who inspired and guided world Jewry, and who was the revered teacher of many members of our congregation.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. A master of the Talmud, a profound and creative thinker, a charismatic teacher, he inspired multitudes and enriched immeasurably the Halachic character of Jewish life. Fifth Avenue Synagogue is bereft by his passing.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. Hermann Merkin, Founding Pres. Shelley Goren, Chairman David Yagoda, President

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. YIVO records with the deepest sorrow the loss of the great scholar, sage and teacher Rabbi Joseph Soloveitchik. His commitment to the tradition of scholarship of Eastern European Jewry will serve as an inspiration for generations to come.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. The Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America joins the entire House of Israel in mourning the passing of "The Rav", Rabbi and Rosh Hayeshiva par excellence, Rabbi Soloveitchik taught and trained generations of rabbis and elevated and motivated scores of thousands of his people...

Deaths

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. The Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America joins the entire House of Israel in mourning the passing of "The Rav", Rabbi and Rosh Hayeshiva par excellence, Rabbi Soloveitchik taught and trained generations of rabbis and elevated and motivated scores of thousands of his people. He was the creative genius who inspired the renaissance of American orthodoxy; the spiritual mentor to rabbinic and lay leadership. His towering intellect, creative mastery of Jewish scholarship and thought, and magnetic and forceful personality made him a central and decisive force in molding students, disciples, institutions, and communities. Universally recognized as one of this century's major Jewish leaders, philosophers and expositors of halacha, his seminal ideas and thought influenced large segments of world Jewry. The Rav played a major role in shaping the Orthodox Union, which for decades has been led by his students and disciples. He was a warm, loving, caring father-figure, confidant and advisor to unfold thousands who reciprocated and returned his love. He was a man of historic proportions. His passing closes an era. He will continue to illuminate and inspire our lives and deeds. May the Lord console his family and us among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Joseph, Rabbi. We are orphaned! Blessed be the true judge! With broken hearts, The Rabbinical Council of America mourns the passing of Rabbi Joseph Soloveitchik, its spiritual mentor for almost four decades. The Ish Haholacha (The Man of Religious Law) was the peerless chairman of our Halacha Commission. The lonely man of Faith warmed our hearts and inspired us with his discourses at our conventions with his teaching, with his writing. His rare brilliance was blessed with the unequalled gift of oratory to convey God's words to thousands of people as well as to individuals. We are fortunate to have lived in his generation and to have basked in his spiritual radiance. There have been none like him since Vilna Goon, two hundred years ago. Our anguish and sense of loss are attenuated only by the fact that his most meaningful life will continue to inspire us, our children and descendants, our congregations and the whole House of Israel. The Rav was a master teacher. His intellectual world embraced every aspect of Jewish law, literature and philosophy as well as modern philosophy, history and science. The more we say, the more we realize how inadequate we are to express our sense of loss, our appreciation, and our love.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph Dov. AMIT Women is profoundly saddened by the passing of "The Rav", the Dean of American Orthodoxy and spiritual leader of World Jewry. The greatest Talmudic scholar of our generation, Rabbi Soloveitchik exemplified passionate devotion, intellectual creativity, and courage in his leadership. We grieve with all of Klal Yisrael and pray that the family and all of the Jewish World will be comforted among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Joseph B. Congregation Shaaray Tefila in Lawrence mourns the loss of "The Rav", Hagoan S., renowned Torah luminary, who inspired and guided world Jewry, and who was the revered teacher of many members of our congregation.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. A mighty oak has fallen! The Board of Trustees, Faculty, Administration, and students of Touro College join in the sorrow of his distinguished family, and of Klal Yisrael, at the passing of the Ish Haholacha, Rabbi Yosef Dov Soloveitchik, towering figure in the renaissance of Orthodox Jewry in America and the world, Talmudic genius, master disseminator of Torah, inspired and inspiring thinker, magnificent mentor and guide to generations of students.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. The Jewish Center mourns the passing of a great leader, scholar and teacher. Through the power of his intellect and charisma, he shaped the contours of American Orthodoxy in the twentieth century. The legacy of the "Rav" will live on in our synagogues as well as in the families and communities of his tens of thousands of students all over the world. May his entire family be comforted among all who mourn for Zion and Jerusalem.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. Our loss is overwhelming. There is no one to replace him. His brilliance was awesome. We, his students, will never forget our exposure to this mountain of knowledge. He made us better Jews, both in learning and in practice. We grieve together with his family, and may they be comforted among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. The Jewish Publication Society mourns the passing of our generation's giant of Torah scholarship. We are honored to have been the publisher of "Halakic Man", one of his most enduring works in the English language. May his memory be a blessing and an inspiration for future scholars.

SOLOVEITCHIK—Rabbi Joseph B. The Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America joins the entire House of Israel in mourning the passing of "The Rav", Rabbi and Rosh Hayeshiva par excellence, Rabbi Soloveitchik taught and trained generations of rabbis and elevated and motivated scores of thousands of his people. He was the creative genius who inspired the renaissance of American orthodoxy; the spiritual mentor to rabbinic and lay leadership. His towering intellect, creative mastery of Jewish scholarship and thought, and magnetic and forceful personality made him a central and decisive force in molding students, disciples, institutions, and communities. Universally recognized as one of this century's major Jewish leaders, philosophers and expositors of halacha, his seminal ideas and thought influenced large segments of world Jewry. The Rav played a major role in shaping the Orthodox Union, which for decades has been led by his students and disciples. He was a warm, loving, caring father-figure, confidant and advisor to unfold thousands who reciprocated and returned his love. He was a man of historic proportions. His passing closes an era. He will continue to illuminate and inspire our lives and deeds. May the Lord console his family and us among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

Deaths

SOLOVEITCHIK—Joseph B. Rabbi. Words are inadequate to express the extraordinary qualities of this spiritual giant, our honorary President, and the depths and intensity of our appreciation for him. He was for us an endless source of inspiration in enhancing our commitment for Torah and Medinat Israel. He shall remain forever in our hearts, minds, and in the spirit of our people. Religious Zionist of America Hermann Merkin, Honorary Pres. Rabbi Dr. Sol Roth, President Rabbi Dr. Louis Bernstein, Chairman of the Board Shragai Cohen, 1st Vice President Israel Freidman, Exec Vice Pres.

STRAYER—John Wesley. On March 31, 1993. Retired from Manufacturer's Hanover Trust Company. Residing at Gannon Funeral Home, 152 East 28 Street, N.Y.C., 4:4 P.M., Monday. Service 5:30 P.M.

TELLER—"Griff", of Skaneateles, NY, formerly of Little Falls, NJ, on April 8, 1993. Beloved husband of the late Mabel (nee Grant). Devoted father of Robert and John Teller, and Mrs. Ruth Bragg. Loving grandfather of eleven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Funeral Services will be 10 A.M., Tuesday, from Norman A. Parker Funeral Home, 47 Main St., Little Falls and 10:30 A.M., from Holy Angels RC Church, Little Falls. Interment Immaculate Conception Cemetery, Upper Montclair. Visiting Monday 1-4 P.M. and 7-9 P.M. Memorial contributions to the Griff Teller Memorial Art Fund, 719 Shadowlawn Drive, Westfield, N.J. 07090 would be appreciated.

TENSER—Bertha. Beloved wife of the late Irving. Devoted mother of Barry and Joel, mother-in-law of Lori and Dina, loving grandmother of Ilene Bowers and Gregg. Memorial contributions to the Alzheimer's Association would be appreciated. Private services were held on Friday.

VASSER—Hervey Provost, of Rumson, NJ on April 9, 1993 at Red Bank, N.J. Funeral service on Monday, April 12 at 12:00 noon at the Adams Memorial Home, 310 Broad Street, Red Bank. Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday evening, 7:00 to 9:00 P.M.

WALKER—Samuel Randolph, on April 9th, 1993 in Old Bladph, ONT; husband of Jacqueline James Walker; father of Bailey W. Syrington of New York City, Susan Walker Little of Albuquerque, NM, and Jill W. Harned of Boston, MA; brother of Dr. Thomas B. Walker II and Dr. Mary W. Kirkwood; grandfather of nine and great-grandfather of five. Memorial services will be at The First Congregational Church of Old Lyme at noon on Friday, April 16th, and at St. Paul's Chapel, Columbia University, at 4:30 P.M., on Tuesday, April 27th. Gifts in his memory may be made to: The Crew of 1929 Fund, Columbia College, Central Mail Room Box 917, New York, N.Y. 10027; The First Congregational Church of Old Lyme, 2 Ferry Road, Old Lyme, CT 06371; or The Hospice of S.E. CT., 365 Montauk Avenue, New London, Connecticut 06320.

WALKER—Samuel R. Our heartfelt condolences to Jackie, Bailly, Jill and Susie. A beloved mentor who will be sorely missed. Daniel Birdsall & Co., Inc. Andrew Saunders, President

WOLIN—Harry, 83, passed away April 4 in North Miami Beach. Beloved, generous, considerate husband of 62 years, father, grandfather, great grandfather, neighbor, friend. Preceded in death by his cherished son Ron. Survived by his loving wife, Bobbi; sisters Jean, May, and June; daughter Joan and son-in-law Harvey Strauss; grandchildren Denise, Andrea, Jeff, Jay, and Alex; and three great grandchildren.

ZIMMERMAN—Charles, on April 10, 1993, age 94. Husband of the late Pauline; loving father of Renee Pachman and Ira Zimmerman; grandmother of Ilene, Lisa and Mark; brother of Frieda. Services Sunday, 12 noon, at "The Riverside", 76th Street and Amsterdam Avenue.

In Memoriam

HERTZ—Moe. On April 10, 1974. You will always remain in our thoughts and our hearts. Barry and Harvey

MARKS—Murray. Darling daddy, happy birthday, you are in my heart and thoughts every moment of every day. Linda

MATOS—Miguel, April 10, 1991. You are lovingly remembered in our thoughts each and every day. Mirta and Jimmy

SCHWARTZ—Aaron I., died April 11, 1989. Live in our hearts and minds. Love from Betty, Carole, Ted, Lisa and Leta

WALERSTEIN—Jeffrey David, April 7, 1964—April 14, 1989. Miss you daily. Love ya. Mom and Dad

ANNOUNCEMENTS OF DEATHS MAY BE TELEPHONED TO (212) 354-3900 UNTIL 5:30 P.M. FOR WEEKDAY EDITIONS, UNTIL 2:30 P.M. ON SATURDAY FOR SUNDAY EDITION, OUT-OF-NYC. TOLL FREE 800-458-5522